In accordance with legal requirements, the organiser has taken out one or more insurance policies against the following risks:

Insurance coverage:

- A) Personal Injury: up to €70 million per claim.
- B) Damage to Property: up to €15 million per claim.

Note: Please note exclusions listed in the Third Party Liability policy Number 96.119.524 contracted by the RFEDA. Details can be requested from the organizer.

The organiser's third-party insurance is valid for the entire duration of the Competition, not only during official practice and race heats but also for travelling from the parking area to the course of the Competition and back.

Article 7 – Protests and appeals

Protest fee: €1000.

International appeal fee (FIA): €3000.

Any protest must be lodged in accordance with the prescriptions of the Code. Protests must be made in writing and given to the clerk of the course or to his assistant, or in their absence to a steward, accompanied by the requisite protest fees.

If the protest requires the dismantling and re-assembly of various parts of a car, the claimant must also pay a deposit which shall be set by the stewards.

A breakdown of the protest deposit fees if dismantling is required must be published on the official notice board or be available upon request from the organiser.

The International Court of Appeal will hear, in the context of a Competition forming part of an FIA Championship (which includes the FIA European Hill Climb Championship), appeals against decisions of the stewards of a Competition brought by organisers, Competitors, Drivers or other licence-holders that are addressees of such decisions or that are individually affected by such decisions. In this case, the ASNs cannot refuse to give their assistance and agreement.
